Dear Mr. Travis:

Please consider this our response to your attached Freedom of Information Act request, received via email on November 4, 2019 and summarized below:

Records indicating aggravated assault charges were dismissed against Billy M. Travis regarding a May 2019 incident.

Please find enclosed records responsive to your request.

We consider your request completed. If we can be of further assistance, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Rollie Hawk

[REDACTED]

Hello, My name is Jeremy and I am writing on behalf of my father Billy M Travis d.o.b. [REDACTED]. He would like any documents that show that a 2019 Aggravated Assault charge was dismissed. It happened in Anna durring April possibly May of 2019. He was arrested and went to Jackson Co. jail for 2 days, then was released with no bond required because the charge was dismissed. There is not anything online @Judici regarding this case because it was dismissed. If you could email the papers to us for convenience that would be greatly appreciated. I can print PDF files and keep the file for safe keeping.

Thank You
Jeremy L Travis
